

SECTION 2. Curriculum Committee

II.2.1 The Curriculum Committee is established as an assembly committee and shall consist of representatives from each department or school offering a curriculum in the College of Science and Engineering. These representatives shall be selected for one year terms by each department or school. The committee shall also have four student representatives, with at least one from CSE's senior class, at least one from recommendations by the associate dean for undergraduate programs in consultation with the CSE Student Board Committee on Committees, and at least one graduate student. The chair of the committee shall be chosen by the dean from among the faculty members of the committee. The associate dean for undergraduate programs is an ex-officio non-voting member of the committee.

Deleted: .

II.2.2 The Curriculum Committee shall consider issues dealing with CSE's courses and curriculum. The committee shall consider all matters of course additions, course deletions, significant changes in course content, changes in course prerequisites and other related questions brought before it by the various units of CSE. Recommendations of the committee shall be forwarded to the Faculty Assembly for action.

Deleted: undergraduate

II.2.3 Changes in each undergraduate curriculum shall be reported to the Curriculum Committee for information. The dean shall have the power to request a study of a particular curriculum by the Curriculum Committee. Its recommendations in this matter shall be reported to the Faculty Assembly for action.

Deleted: All graduate course offered by the various units in CSE are to be reported to the committee for information. ¶

Comment [w1]: We might want to keep "undergraduate" in this line to avoid too many reports coming to the committee.

II.2.4 The chair of the CSE Curriculum Committee may refer matters of common concern of a particular group of departments within CSE to a subcommittee consisting of representatives from those departments concerned. The dean may call a meeting of the faculty of the group of departments in order to consider recommendations of this sub-committee.
